

- References to the Additional Sketch intended to exhibit the Position of the British Squadron, and the March of the Troops from the Beach to the Heights of Balon and Brion &c. with the Situation of the Spanish Squadron.
- AA British Squadron at Anchor with the Transports.
 - B The Two Frigates in the Bay within Cape Prior, where Lord Cavan's Brigade was disembarked.
 - C The Fort mounted with 24 Pounders, and from which the Enemy was driven by the fire of the Impetuous, Brilliant, and St Vincent Gun-brig.
 - DD March of Lord Cavan's Brigade.
 - EEEE March of the Troops to Occupy the Heights.
 - FF Parties of Seamen with Three pieces of Cannon.
 - G Spanish Squadron consisting of five Sail of the line, and Three Frigates under the Command of Don Francisco Melgarejo.
 - H Ships fitting in the Bason.
 - I Frigates Gun-boats &c. to defend the Entrance of the Gullet, and the opposite North Shore.
 - K Casemated Battery of Ninety pieces of Cannon constructed on the South-west Pier.
 - H Casemated Batteries on the South-east Pier.

ATLANTIC

ATLANTIC

PLAN OF THE INLETS OF FERROL
CORUÑA AND BETANZOS
Geometrically Surveyed in 1787.
By DON VINCENT TOPIÑO DE S. MIGUEL,
BRIGADIER IN THE SPANISH NAVAL ARMY.
LONDON.

Published by W. Faden Geographer to His Majesty and to HRH the Prince of Wales,
Charing Cross Lane 1787.

*The Soundings are in Spanish Fathoms which are 1/2 shorter than the English Fathom.
The Letters indicate S Sand — fS fine Sand — cS Coarse Sand — G Gravel — Sh Shells — M Mud — St Stones.*